

LIST OF FIGURES

Sl. No.	Fig. No.	Title	Page No.
1	1.1	Administration as determined by prevalent organizational structure of Government Hospital: Example from PGIMER, RML Hospital, New Delhi	21
2	1.2	Administration as determined by prevalent organizational structure of Corporate Hospital: Example from Fortis Hospital, New Delhi	21
3	4.1	Map of Kamrup (Metro) District showing different Revenue Circles	90
4	4.2	Photograph of first NABH accredited Hospital of the North East	91
5	4.3	Photograph of the Teaching Hospital of Assam with highest number of beds	91
6	4.4	Photograph of the only Government Ayurvedic Hospital of Assam	92
7	5.1	Matrix Type functional organizational structure found in Medium size Corporate and Trust Hospitals in Guwahati City	102
8	5.2	Pie showing organizational structure of Private Hospitals	104
9	5.3	Pie showing Organizational Structure and Administration of Government Hospitals	104
10	5.4	Bar showing distribution of Departments: Government and Autonomous Hospitals	107
11	5.5	Bar showing Comparison of Certification and Accreditation status of Government and Private Hospitals	110
12	5.6	Bar showing Bed strength and Manpower position of Government and Autonomous Hospitals	117
13	5.7	Bar showing number of Beds, Doctors, Nurses and total Man Power: Private Hospitals	119
14	5.8	Pie showing visit of District Authority to Private Hospitals	141
15	5.9	Pie showing Visit of Pollution Control Board Official to Private Hospitals	142